

Saturday, September 16, 2017
12:00 Noon–2:00 p.m.

Oncology: Terminology, Diagnostics and Treatment for Medical Interpreters

Instructor: Kveta Morgan, Washington State Certified Medical and Court
Registered Interpreter

12:00 noon Cancer Diagnostic Tools for which we interpret

Diagnostic Imaging
Blood Testing
Genetic Testing
Biopsies

12:30 p.m. Commonly occurring cancers in the United States

Breast Cancer
Vocabulary of common Treatments

1:00 p.m. Vocabulary of common treatments

Bladder Cancer
Lung and Bronchus
Prostate Cancer

1:30 p.m. VOCABULARY OF COMMON TREATMENTS

Colorectal Cancer
Uterine Cancer
Melanoma (Skin) Cancer

There will be in-class writing exercises for speakers of all language combinations .
Participants will learn about resources for continuing to learn about this topic and how to look up terms when they need them. You are invited to join this well-prepared interactive workshop .

Approved by DSHS/LIST for 2 continuing education credits.

$45.00 advance registration (resources@languageexchangeinc.com or 360-755-9910, extension 403) or $50.00 at the door. Certificate.

Participants must arrive on time and remain until the end for credit. Full refund of registration in the unusual event of class cancellation.

The Language
Exchange
Inc

Classroom at The Language Exchange, Inc.
716 E. Fairhaven, Burlington, WA 98233
REGISTER: 360.755.9910, EXT 0 or resources@languageexchangeinc.com